

The Pikes Peak Chapter of Trout Unlimited and these fine businesses of Old Colorado Springs proudly presents:

The Greenback Cutthroat Trout Challenge.
(A scavenger hunt)

1. Gary Greenback loves to hang out in the Old Colorado City Library. See if you can find him in his hiding place as he keeps an eye on people entering and exiting.

Once you have found Gary, leave the Library and walk South.

2. You are now looking for Sally Greenback. She loves to learn all she can. Her current way of learning is to hang about among small sculptures.

Walking west you are seeking to find Jeffery Greenback where he is trading time in the creek for time on Colorado Ave as he loves to hang around buffalo.

4. ABC Candy 25th st
Now you will want to continue to walk westward keeping an eye to the North where you might find Jennifer Greenback in a very sweet hiding place where she sings the Alphabet song.

5. Once you find Jennifer you might want to return to Colorado Avenue and continue your journey westward. You are now looking for Sam Greenback who loves the mountains and all the goodies one finds there.

6. Gail Greenback thinks everyday should be Christmas. You will find her window shopping for gifts just west of where you find yourself.

7. Grandma Greta Greenback likes to keep her family warm and cozy in the winter by sewing soft bedding for them. Walk west to the next street and turn right to find her favorite place to shop.

The Pikes Peak Chapter of Trout Unlimited and these fine businesses of Old Colorado Springs proudly presents:

The Greenback Cutthroat Trout Challenge.
(A scavenger hunt)

1. Gary Greenback loves to hang out in the Old Colorado City Library. See if you can find him in his hiding place as he keeps an eye on people entering and exiting.

Once you have found Gary, leave the Library and walk South.

2. You are now looking for Sally Greenback. She loves to learn all she can. Her current way of learning is to hang about among small sculptures.

Walking west you are seeking to find Jeffery Greenback where he is trading time in the creek for time on Colorado Ave as he loves to hang around buffalo.

4. ABC Candy 25th st
Now you will want to continue to walk westward keeping an eye to the North where you might find Jennifer Greenback in a very sweet hiding place where she sings the Alphabet song.

5. Once you find Jennifer you might want to return to Colorado Avenue and continue your journey westward. You are now looking for Sam Greenback who loves the mountains and all the goodies one finds there.

6. Gail Greenback thinks everyday should be Christmas. You will find her window shopping for gifts just west of where you find yourself.

7. Grandma Greta Greenback likes to keep her family warm and cozy in the winter by sewing soft bedding for them. Walk west to the next street and turn right to find her favorite place to shop.

8. While Grandma Greta is browsing, Grandpa Gavin Greenback happily bides his time at his favorite place across the street. Come inside and look for him waiting his turn for a cold sweet treat.

9. Gregory Greenback loves Moussaka and Baklava. Walk a half block west and you will find him inside his special place inhaling the delicious smells.

10. Now you will want to cross Colorado Ave very carefully and begin walking East. You are now looking for Sofia Greenback. She is hanging around water that she loves as much as the spicy tastes and smells of a rustic place along Colorado Ave.

11. Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory: 2431 W Colo Gloria Greenback knows that chocolate, not diamonds, is a girl's best friend. Continue to walk east to find her guarding the entrance to her idea of Paradise.

12. As you continue your walk east look for Graham Greenback who appreciates the finer things in life. He also loves the colors of the sun and the sky. Go inside to find him enjoying the works of many talented people.

Congratulations, you have found all the hiding Greenback Trout around Old Colorado City. Now you might want to return to the Library and receive a prize to help you remember your adventure of searching for all the hiding Greenback Trout.

To learn more about the Colorado Greenback Cutthroat Trout you can visit us at: PPCTU.ORG

8. While Grandma Greta is browsing, Grandpa Gavin Greenback happily bides his time at his favorite place across the street. Come inside and look for him waiting his turn for a cold sweet treat.

9. Gregory Greenback loves Moussaka and Baklava. Walk a half block west and you will find him inside his special place inhaling the delicious smells.

10. Now you will want to cross Colorado Ave very carefully and begin walking East. You are now looking for Sofia Greenback. She is hanging around water that she loves as much as the spicy tastes and smells of a rustic place along Colorado Ave.

11. Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory: 2431 W Colo Gloria Greenback knows that chocolate, not diamonds, is a girl's best friend. Continue to walk east to find her guarding the entrance to her idea of Paradise.

12. As you continue your walk east look for Graham Greenback who appreciates the finer things in life. He also loves the colors of the sun and the sky. Go inside to find him enjoying the works of many talented people.

Congratulations, you have found all the hiding Greenback Trout around Old Colorado City. Now you might want to return to the Library and receive a prize to help you remember your adventure of searching for all the hiding Greenback Trout.

To learn more about the Colorado Greenback Cutthroat Trout you can visit us at: PPCTU.ORG